

jakob k. - your great imagination

shades of brightness

(music: jakob künzel / lyrics: cla nett)

won't cross the border should I stay or leave i'll bury my troubles want to end my grief

sneakin' through the night saw the crossroads sign only one heads to sunrise (have to) make up my mind escape from daylight into the darkest night i'll pull a blanket over my head with brightened darkness put my feet back on the ground tear off the blanket on my head you found me creeping down on bended knees no knights in white armour bound to rescue me

sweet angel's ways
liftin' off the haze do not ask any questions just her love and grace
